

Personal Information Privacy Statement

Your attention is drawn to the following statement as to how we protect the privacy of your personally identifying and identifiable information ("Personal Information": such as name, address, telephone number, e-mail address, and cargo tracking service ID and password), when you use this web site:

Collection of Personal Information

Subject to obtaining your consent, we may collect your Personal Information through this web site. You have the option of not providing any of your Personal Information on our website or registering your Personal Information through the "Contact us" form or elsewhere, in order to inquire about our services, or view certain parts of its content or avail yourself of our online information services. Registering any of your Personal Information signifies your consent to our Privacy Policy. Please allow for possible limited availability of our website content and online information services in the case of non-registration.

Use of collected Personal Information

If we need to use your Personal Information beyond the scope of the purposes originally stated above, such expanded use will be posted here to obtain your consent. You have the option of not giving consent to our expanded use, so that we will treat your Personal Information within the scope of our originally stated purposes. In either case, we will make every effort to protect the privacy of your Personal Information that you provided through our website.

Disclosure to third parties

We will not disclose your Personal Information to any third parties, without obtaining your consent, unless we are so required by relevant laws and regulations. We may, however, disclose such information to third-party service providers within the scope of our originally stated purposes, subject to obligating such third parties to retain the privacy of your Personal Information. We may provide any third party with information which is not personally identifying or identifiable, in such a manner as we may deem appropriate.

Use of IP addresses

We log your originating IP addresses and domain names when you access our website, in order to make analysis on users' access content and tendency and be able to help solve any connection problems with our server and your website uses. Such information itself would not personally identify a user.

Use of cookies

Our website uses cookies to check if your computer has the Flash Plug-in installed for enhancement of your accessibility to certain site content. We do not use cookies to collect any Personal Information.

A cookie is one of the mechanisms to identify a website user's computer. It is a small text file transferred to your hard disk by a website server, when you visit a website to view its pages. Once accepting cookies of a web server, it reads the cookies and identifies your computer, every time you return to the site. The use of cookies does not personally identify the user unless you register your Personal Information on the web pages.
